MORAVIAN CHURCH NORTHERN PROVINCE

Discretionary Grant Guidelines

- Eligibility Available to an organization, agency or congregation (Entity) of the Northern Province of the Moravian Church that addresses the needs of the Moravian community of faith.
- Purpose Funding may be requested:
- for a capital project,
 - for a start-up program or start-up position,
 - to meet an unexpected, non-recurring expense.
- When is Funding Provided? Discretionary Grants will be allocated twice per year; distributions to be made in May and November of each year. Applications must be received by the LLF by March 1 and September 1.
- Grants are one time only. An Entity can apply for only one grant at a time. Chosen applicants may re-apply after two years have passed since they received funding.
- How is Funding Determined? Criteria for determining discretionary grants will include but not be limited to:
- Will the project, program, position, Entity be viable without the grant?
 - An assessment of need based on specific project, program, position, Entity financial and narrative reports
 - The estimated number of people helped or impacted by the funding
 - The ability to acquire matching funds
- What is Required in a Funding Application?
- Scope & Purpose of project, program, position or Description of unexpected, non-recurring expense, as applicable
 - Cost of entire project, program, position or Amount of unexpected, non-recurring expense, as applicable
 - Amount sought from LLF
