Creating a Resilient World . . . One Church at a Time: Trauma Workshop
Wednesday, October 30th, 2019 | 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. | Trinity Moravian
Church

The impacts of trauma are far-reaching and affect every community throughout our world today. Studies indicate that up to 40% of American adults, many of whom are sitting in our pews, have experienced at least two adverse or traumatic experiences during their childhood. Sometimes, congregations also encounter collective traumas as a group or within their community.

Whether with individuals, families, or groups, pastors and ministry leaders regularly find themselves at the crossroads of tragedy and healing. How might the church minister to individuals experiencing distress and suffering in our churches and communities? One answer is to become trauma-informed.

Join us as the Center for Trauma Resilient Communities helps us explore the connection between toxic stress, adverse childhood experiences (ACEs), trauma, and community resilience. Participants will leave with a better understanding of:

- * how trauma affects brain development and controls reactions;
- * how adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) and toxic stress impact our lives, our work, and our congregations; and
- * how mandatory reporting laws work in North Carolina.

Representatives from the provincial mental health team will be present to offer local and national resources.

Registration will open on September 1st. The link to the registration form will be here.

PEC News for September

The PEC held regular meetings August 8 and 22. All members were present, with the exception of Keith Kapp who joined the Aug. 22 meeting via telephone conference call. These meetings included time for prayer for various needs within the congregations and ministries of the Province, and for church staff and leaders.

SYNOD / STRATEGIC DIRECTION

PEC met with members of the Provincial Organization Core Team Aug. 22 to receive an update and discuss answers to questions submitted to the PEC; and, completed plans for the “Reading the Bible Together” event related to the Resolution 14 Response and Resources Team.

CHURCHES AND LEADERS

PEC met with one pastor from another denomination who is interested in possible service with the Moravian Church, appointed a congregational acolyte for the King church at the request of the boards, provided advice to one congregation preparing for a congregation council meeting, and met with the church board of St. Philips at their request. PEC began or continued steps in the call process for: Ardmore, Bethabara, Bethania, Christ, Friedland, Prince of Peace, Rolling Hills, and Union Cross; adjusted arrangements for quadrennial reviews at Pine Chapel, New Hope (NC), Immanuel New Eden, Clemmons, Konnoak Hills, and Messiah; and made plans to host local approved candidates for ordination for dinner at our Sept. 5 meeting. PEC reviewed plans for the ordination of Leslie Cox as a deacon on Sept. 8, and her installation as pastor at Mayodan on Sept. 15; and confirmed plans for receiving Safiatu Braima as Provincial Acolyte for the Sierra Leone Mission Area, Sept. 8 (in a service at Little Church on the Lane). PEC completed arrangements for Christy Clore to serve as transitional pastor at Kernersville and Bob Peterson as interim pastor at Union Cross, both beginning in October. PEC discussed plans for the “time with PEC” at the annual Moravian Ministry Retreat at Laurel Ridge, and received an update about the Moravian Clergy Connections initiative (funded by a Lilly Foundation grant).

UNITY and ECUMENICAL

PEC note that the interprovincial bishops’ conference will meet at Laurel Ridge Aug. 26-30. PEC made plans for alternate representation at the Oct. 2-4 meeting of Christian Churches Together in the USA due to David Guthrie attending the annual MMA retreat; and noted Guthrie’s participation in the Unity Executive Committee meeting in Tanzania in September.

OTHER MATTERS

PEC discussed a draft 2020 PEC operating budget, including funding needs, and decided to apply an unrestricted undesignated gift of $5,000 to support the 2020 budget.

Churches for Middle East Peace events at Home Church September 25, 2019

For many years the Moravian Church in America (Northern and Southern Provinces) has been a member of Churches for Middle East Peace (CMEP). CMEP is a coalition of 27 national church denominations and faith organizations from Protestant, Orthodox, Catholic and Evangelical traditions. It works for a comprehensive resolution to conflicts in the Middle East and advocates for equality, human rights, security and justice for all people of the Middle East.

Twice each year CMEP brings to congregations across the country a “Pilgrimage to Peace Tour” team composed of multiple voices from the Middle East who help inform and educate people of faith on the work being done to achieve peace and justice in the Holy Land. On Wednesday, September 25, 2019 Home Moravian Church will host the Pilgrimage to Peace Tour team that will be in Winston-Salem for the day. Members of the team include: The Rev. Mae Cannon, Executive Director of CMEP, Rabbi Dr. Daniel Roth, director of the Pardes Center for Judaism and Conflict Resolution in Jerusalem, and Aziz Abu Sarah, a Muslim speaker, author, entrepreneur and peace advocate from Jerusalem who is the recipient of the Eisenhower Medallion as well as the Goldberg Prize for Peace in the Middle East given by the Institute of International Education.

There will be two events hosted by Home Church on September 25: a Pastors/Educators Lunch with the Pilgrimage to Peace team in the Fellowship Hall from noon to 1:30 p.m. (reservation needed), and an evening program open to our wider Moravian community and others at 6:45 to 8:00 p.m. in the Home Church sanctuary. Moravian ministers and educators can make a reservation for the luncheon provided on September 25 by calling the church office (336-722-6171). We hope that many of our congregational members will participate in the Wednesday evening event, and we look forward to this exciting and important opportunity for our church as together we seek to follow our Chief Elder and Prince of Peace in the world of today.

Happy Birthday to the Southern Province Widow's Society

In 1919, several Moravian men met and founded the Southern Province's Widow's Society. It was patterned after the Widow's Society of the Northern Province which was founded in the late 1700's.

The purpose of the Society is to give income to the ladies whose husbands were members and have died.

Across the years, hundreds of ladies whose husbands were members and died have receive two checks a year. In 2019, 57 widows will receive a total of $1,000.00. PLUS, as a bonus this year, the Board of Directors voted recently to give an extra $100.00 to honor the 100th birthday.

The Widow's Society is open for membership to any married Moravian man who has not yet reached his 61st birthday and is in good health. Or, he may join if his wife is a member of a Moravian Church.

The one - time cost to join is $250.00, plus $10.00 for each year over age 50. I.E. a man 57 pays $320.00. Some funds are available to assist with this fee if needed.

For further information, and an application, please call The Rev. Dr. Bill Campbell at 336.403.3209.
