CHURCHES AND LEADERS

The PEC met with a pastor from another denomination who has been supply preacher in one congregation; reviewed and discussed the status of pastors currently without call; reviewed the list of active pastors and projected retirements during the intersynodal period; received a report from a preliminary assessment interview one of our pastors completed for prospective new church planters (partnering with the ELCA for this assessment); met with two individuals considering candidacy for ordination and affirmed their continuing the process; and, continued work and meetings related to various call processes including: Bethania, Fairview, Friedland, New Philadelphia, and Rural Hall. PEC received materials from one congregation and their request to review a prior decision concerning the assigned provincial share allocation; discussed a request from three congregations to include live-streaming attendance in Sunday morning worship attendance reports; began preparation for receiving and reviewing the 2019 ministry reports from pastors and church educators; and discussed arrangements for quadrennial reviews in the spring of 2020 at: Olivet, Friedberg, Mayodan, Raleigh, Covenant, First (GA), and with the BCM.

BOARDS, COMMITTEES AND COMMISSIONS

PEC appointed David Bagby and David Piner to the Board of Trustees of the Moravian Music Foundation; agreed to ask the Provincial Support Services Board to analyze projected income from congregations for the 2020 Provincial budget; received meeting notes from the monthly meeting of the Moravian Team for Reconciliation; noted the resignation of Zach Dease from the Moravian Theological Seminary Board of Trustees; and reviewed a list of PEC appointments to various boards, commissions, agencies and task groups; and responded to a request from the BCM about PEC member participation in the February 22 Leadership Focus event to be held at Bethania.

INTERPROVINCIAL, UNITY and ECUMENICAL

PEC approved a request from the bishops of both Provinces to hold the interprovincial bishops' conference every two years, rather than every four; approved a draft update to the "orderly exchange of ordained clergy" statement, which we use in our relationships with full communion partners; approved Guthrie's participation, along with representatives from the Unity Board, and Board of World Mission, in a February 2020 delegation to the Sierra Leone Mission Area;

OTHER MATTERS

PEC continued development of a "delegate with oversight" model for organizing our work in 2020, including implementation of a Commission on Ministry, a Synod Planning and Implementation Team, and discussion of specific tasking of the BCM and the PSSB; approved a resolution regarding 2020 housing allowances for Guthrie and Marcus; approved the installation of a video conferencing system in the Cedarhyrst conference room (funded by a donor); and made plans for a January 9-10 offsite retreat/meeting.

PEC holds an offsite retreat/meeting Jan. 9-10, and a regular meeting Jan. 23.

Three New Year’s Resolutions you can’t break

By Vince Holbrook

At the beginning of a new year, thoughts often turn toward resolutions, fresh starts, and new commitments. Many of us vow year-after-year to lose weight, stop smoking, or change other behaviors. But discipline is hard.

Sadly, studies show most New Year’s resolutions are broken in about 21 days – only about one third of the time (66 days) it takes to establish a new pattern. And Lent is just around the corner too. So why not make a resolution you can actually keep! We can help.

Become a “First Fruits” Giver.

Find your church or ministry on the Moravian Giving Portal and schedule a MONTHLY gift the day after your payday. This way your gift is automatic. It’s the first thing you do with your money. You won’t have to remember it. It will happen if you are traveling, sick, or playing hooky from church. If your circumstances change, you can always go in and change the amount of your monthly gift, or the date.

Invest in the church.

If you have investments, you’re probably paying investment fees. But what happens to those fees? When you invest in the Moravian Common Fund, managed by the Moravian Ministries Foundation in America, the fees remain in the Moravian Church and continue to do God’s work. Those fees enable us provide Stewardship Services at no charge to congregations, distribute money globally to support mission work, issue grants and more. Your investment fees continue to do God’s work when they remain in the church. By spending a few minutes to move your investments from secular managers to MMFA, your investment fees will keep your resolution to support God’s work all year.

Name your church or Moravian Ministry in your estate plan.

The beginning of a new year is a great time create or reassess your will. If you don’t have one, let 2020 be the year you create one. We can help you organize your thoughts, clarify your passions, and use the tools of philanthropy to make your perfect planned gift. If you already have a will, the beginning of a new decade is a great time to reassess whether it reflects your current priorities and wishes.

So, say “yes” to a resolution that will last longer than 21 days, take only a few minutes to complete, and you won’t forget.

Fun Fact: the word “discipline” and “disciple” have the same Latin root word, “discipulus.”

Continuing Education Opportunities

As the New Year gets underway, it's never too early to begin thinking about Continuing Education opportunities. Last year we had 14 pastors submit grant requests for the Spaugh Fund. Combined these grants totaled $15,089 and were used in the following ways: Clergy Coaching, DMIN studies, Spiritual Direction, attending the Festival of Homiletics and other ways. If you are looking for some ways to combine your Continuing Education Funds from church along with grant requests from the Spaugh Fund here are a couple of events to consider:

Mediation Skills Training Institute for Church Leaders (March 23-27, 2020; Fort Mill, SC)

The Mediation Skills Training Institute is designed to equip church leaders with the skills necessary to deal effectively with interpersonal, congregational, and other forms of group conflict. The five-day institute also includes a component on congregational mediation and consultation, placed within the context of family systems theory. Although focused primarily on the church setting, the skills learned are directly transferable to other settings. Thus, managers in business, attorneys, experienced mediators, and others in leadership will be enriched by the training as well. Online link with more information: <https://Impeacecenter.org/event/mediation-skills-training-institute-for-church-leaders-ft-mill-sc/>

Festival of Homiletics (May 18– May 20, 2020 in Atlanta, Georgia)

This year's theme is the following: Preaching a New Earth: Climate and Creation. Be inspired by God's Word proclaimed by some of the nation's finest ministers and teachers. Experience the fellowship of hundreds of preachers. Learn and worship in an atmosphere that is dynamic, friendly, nurturing, and prophetic. Come renew, refresh, and recharge your spirit. Sister Nola Knouse is attending and hopes to recruit others to attend as well. For more information refer to this online link: <https://www.festivalofhomiletics.com/>
