February 2020

ARCHIVES SUNDAY PACKETS. The Provincial Elders Conference has approved designating the last Sunday in April “Moravian Archives Sunday” to offer prayers for the Southern Province Archives and to request support for its ongoing mission as its record keeper. Information to aid in the celebration of this day at your congregations will be sent to you in early February. Our Archives Commission is grateful for your support as we celebrate our Church’s commitment to preserving the witness of Brothers and Sisters who have gone before and to gathering the stories of today’s church work. Prayers are also requested for the Archives Commission as it meets in an annual planning retreat on February 8.

LUNCH LECTURE AND OTHER TALKS. On February 13 Moravian Music Foundation Research Librarian David Blum will speak from 12:15-1:00pm in the Spaugh Lecture/Recital Hall at our offices in the Archie K. Davis Center on “From Russia, with Love (of Sacred Choral Music)”: composer and organist Johann Wilhelm Haessler.” Archivist Eric Elliott speaks at two outside events this month: Friedberg Church’s Men’s Prayer Breakfast on February 9; at the D.A.R. meeting at Centenary UMC on February 21. If you’d like an Archives presentation at your church or meeting, please contact us. No charge for any church event, and a modest honorarium for other outside events.

EXHIBITS OPEN AND CONTINUE. “Nurturing the Gardeners of Wachovia,” an exhibit created by the Archives and sponsored by the Garden Club Council of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County and Old Salem Garden Club, opens at the Archives in the second half of this month. “The Botanizers of Salem,” an exhibit on locals who contributed to the early study of plants in America, continues its showing at Historic Bethania’s Alpha Chapel this month.

NEXT FAMILY HISTORY DOCENT TRAINING MARCH 3. Our fifth training of Family History Docents will be offered on that Tuesday morning from 9am until noon. Docents also are invited to special programming and educational events as a help to that work. Class size is limited to five – please contact us at moravianarchives@mcsp.org to get more information or to reserve a spot in class. $10 material costs refundable upon completion of service commitment.

Film Screening/Discussion

The Moravian Team for Racial, Ethnic, and Cultural Reconciliation will host a free screening of the feature film The Best of Enemies, followed by a small group discussion forum reflecting on how we can bridge the racial divides that are so evident today. Based on the book by the same name, it is the true story of how a black activist and a KKK leader became firm friends and transformed school desegregation in Durham, NC. Interviews with the real-life Ann Atwater and C. P. Ellis were featured in a 2002 documentary called An Unlikely Friendship, where the two told their story of how their lives were changed through working together. The story models how a process that brings divided people to the same table can build relationships that overcome the barriers of hate and fear.

Starring Taraji P. Henson as Ann Atwater, (a civil rights activist in Durham) and Sam Rockwell as C. P. Ellis (Grand Wizard of the Durham KKK).

Special thanks to STX Films for special permission to hold and promote the screening.

Movie Trailer:

A free will offering will be taken to cover costs of the event; admission is free.

What's the deal with IRA changes?

By Chris Spaugh

2019 closed out with a flurry of new laws being signed into existence. Many people were not paying attention as the excitement of Christmas approached and our elected officials largely led us to believe everything was being done to approve a spending bill and keep our government running. At 2,300 plus pages I doubt seriously that many of our elected officials looked at it, much less read the legislation in the 24 hours they had before voting.

Part of the year end flurry included legislation called the Secure Act (Setting Every Community Up for Retirement Enhancement). This Act had several changes for IRAs (Individual Retirement Accounts) that should cause owners of these accounts to review estate plans and/or generally be aware of the changes.

Required Minimum Distribution

The Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) age moved up from 70 ½ to 72. In 2020 or later you will not be forced to withdraw money from your IRA until after your 72nd birthday. You can still make a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from your IRA at 70 ½ since the law did not change the age for a QCD (of course, doing the QCD before age 72 will not count toward a required minimum distribution since those don't start until age 72 going forward).
