PEC News July 2021

The Provincial Elders' Conference had its regular meetings June 10 and 24, and a called meeting June 22, with all members present, except for June 24 when Matthew Allen was at Laurel Ridge, and Judy Knopf was attending the Northern Province, Eastern District virtual Synod. PEC continued its practice of investing time in intercessory prayers for pastors, church leaders, congregations and Provincial boards.

SYNOD / STRATEGIC DIRECTION

PEC met with members of the Leadership and Program teams of the Synod Planning Committee to discuss a proposal about the Synod program; received updates from the Synod Planning Committee; and, continued discussion about advisory delegates, a meeting with pastors to discuss Synod preparation, and Committee plans for Synod organization and processes. PEC reviewed a preliminary Report on 2018 Synod Resolutions and the format of the PEC Report to Synod for 2022.

CHURCHES AND LEADERS

PEC received reports from the Commission on Ministry, approved Reed Lawson as a candidate for ordination, met with another person exploring candidacy, reviewed likely ministerial student aid costs for 2022, arranged to recognize Jami Vandock's certification as a Director of Christian Education at Raleigh, Sept. 13, approved plans for a service of consecration as Presbyterian for Christy Clore on Sept. 19, and contacted the Presbytery of New Hope (PCUSA) about the availability of pastors to serve in our Province. After learning from Ruth Burcaw of her acceptance of a new position as executive director for City with Dwellings, PEC discussed plans for working with the BCM and staff, and possible reorganization of this ministry, motivated in part by financial considerations. PEC met with Christy Clore and Victoria Lasley for an update on the transitional work at Kernersville; and continued discussion and steps in call processes for: Ardmore, Christ, First (Greensboro), Hope, Hopewell, Union Cross and Unity.

BOARDS, COMMITTEES AND COMMISSIONS

PEC discussed updates from the Moravian Team for Racial, Cultural, and Ethnic Reconciliation, including plans for Southern Province participants to join a Racial Justice Pilgrimage for pastors being planned by the Northern Province. PEC reviewed a report and recommendations from a consultation arranged by the Archives Commission with Paul Peucker (Northern Province Archivist).

INTERPROVINCIAL, UNITY and ECUMENICAL

PEC set dates to host the annual joint meeting of the PECs, Northern and Southern, at Laurel Ridge in December; received further updates on conversations between Moravian Theological Seminary and Lancaster Theological Seminary; reviewed some materials from the Northern Province's discussion of "virtual" church membership; and, Guthrie provided a brief video greeting to the (virtual) Unity Women's Desk Caribbean and Latin America Regional Consultation. cont. on page 3

OTHER MATTERS

PEC reviewed available resources about our Moravian identity and theological heritage and made plans to distribute and highlight these resources for pastors and congregations. PEC discussed designated funds, including the Church Aid and Extension, and the Emerging Ministries Funds; and continued conversation about the 2022 Provincial Budget and possible reductions needed.

PEC meetings in June are scheduled for July 15 and 29.

Concerns and Celebrations

Death:

Sister Allyson Atwood Wooten, daughter of Craig Atwood, was called to the more immediate presence of the Savior early in the morning on Sunday, June 13, following a long illness. A celebration of her life was held on Saturday, June 19, at 11:00 a.m. at Hope Moravian Church with the Rev. David Merritt presiding. We pray Christ's comfort for her husband Alan Wooten and her children Jacob and Zoe, her mother Celia Colvard Powers, and her father Craig Atwood, and all the extended family.

HIGHLIGHTING MORAVIAN RESOURCES

Over the next months the PEC will be highlighting several resources about our Moravian beliefs and heritage. Here is a link to a booklet, Guiding Principles of Biblical Interpretation. It includes the 2012 guiding principles developed by the Interprovincial Faith and Order Commission; and, a shorter statement of guiding principles prepared in 2017 by the Unity Committee on Theology of our world-wide Moravian Church.

This resource is formatted in four sections with discussion and reflection questions, suitable for a Sunday school class or a series of small group meetings.

PROVINCIAL FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP

The pandemic prevented our having the usual Provincial stewardship presentation last fall. The PEC has prepared a PowerPoint resource and a 15 minute video presentation. The focus is on finances and budgets: how we made it through 2020; information about the 2021 budget and finances; and a look toward 2022.

Pastors, church boards and anyone interested may find these on the Resources page of the Provincial website.

Moravian Ministries Foundation in America

July 2021

Giving Portal transaction fees are on us

The Moravian Ministries Foundation in America will begin paying the processing fees for online gifts made through the Moravian Giving Portal, beginning July 1. The Foundation itself has never charged any kind of fee. But, the backend processor, Blackbaud Merchant Services, charges a financial, processing fee similar to others who perform this service. This fee has been deducted from the gift, so the receiving congregation or agency got the net balance of the gift after the fee.

While Blackbaud Merchant Services continues to charge the fee, MMFA will pay it beginning July 1. The receiving congregations, agencies, and ministries will now receive the full amount of the donor's gift.

“Many congregations and agencies may now find the fee-free online giving service provided and maintained by MMFA more attractive than their own third party provider. This removes the last roadblock for online gifts through our portal and we are extremely thankful to our donors and investors who make this possible,” said MMFA president and CEO Chris Spagh.

Given that fees still get charged, we encourage donors to consider direct debits (of a checking or savings account) vs. credit card transactions whenever possible. MMFA only absorbs a 75-cent fee for direct debits while card transactions are 2.79% of the donation amount.

Concurrent with its decision to cover the transaction fees, MMFA will also make some other changes to Giving Portal service to the Moravian Church in America:

- MMFA will provide reports and payments to the recipients on a monthly basis, the Foundation was doing this twice monthly, during the past year.
- MMFA will establish accounts for all the Moravian agencies, including those who have their own pre-existing online giving tools on their websites. During its first two years, the Giving Portal simply redirected visitors from the Portal to the agency's page to make the gift there. Maintaining the redirection links has been challenging, so MMFA will now enable all gifts directly through the Portal (as it has been doing for the congregations).

The Resource Center | 2021-2022 Curriculum Sales

Faith formation is still essential and evolving like many other aspects of church and society as we slowly move out of the pandemic. When we rethink how best to serve congregations and members, whether it's toddlers, children, youth, or adults, we know faith formation will likely be “hybrid” or blended (online and offline) in some way. Many of you are now choosing a combination of print and digital resources, and we are here to help you in any way possible!

Our 2021-2022 curriculum ordering season begins June 7 and runs through July 15. Visit MoravianCurriculum.org to order the most popular and high-quality print materials consistent with Moravian theology: Celebrate Wonder, Adult Bible Series, One Room School, Present Word, Feasting on the Word, Growing in Grace and Gratitude, Growing in God’s Love, Follow Me, Faith Questions, and Shine.

The BCM is here to help with all your faith formation initiatives and resource needs! Beth Hayes is in the office on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday and is otherwise available via email to answer any of your questions.
